

Matthew Aqeel graduated from Fordham University on the Dean's List in 2017 and graduated from Boston College Law School in 2020. During Law school Matthew interned at a wide array of offices including the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York where he was distinguished as a Judge McMahon Fellow as well as a WilmerHale Scholar. Matthew served as an Assistant District Attorney in the Bronx in which he helped prosecute a wide array of crimes. Matthew started representing landlords throughout Westchester County in 2021. He has represented landlords in Supreme Court, city code violations as well as in housing court.